

Pokemon TCG Database

This website will include a database about the basics of Pokemon TCG. The database will include the basics of how the game is played, sample card decks, rules, and what specific cards can do. One page will be the main page, where it will include what the website is about, the 2nd page will be about the rules of Pokemon TCG and the basics with tutorial videos, the 3rd page will include the basic details of what each Pokemon card has, the 4th page will be about sample card decks that could be used, and the 5th page can be an about/contact me page. There will also be a catalog when looking at the details of Pokemon cards such as having a list that you're able to scroll through, and each card you're able to click on to learn more details.
